On January 24th, 2017, Choir from the Confucius Institute at the University of Nairobi was invited to perform for the ZTE and its customers.

ZTE held this function in order to welcome the Chinese New Year and give thanks to its customers. The Choir from the CIUON was required to perform three local songs and two Chinese songs. The Choir started its performance after the leader of ZTE gave his speech, Ombi Langu, Half Moon, Dumeila, Good Day and Sudu are the five songs, the choir sang so well that the room was filled with applause after every song. Some audience even sang after them. The performance from the Choir light up the function, making people happy and deepening the friendship between China and Kenya.
